FROM THE DIRECTORS

When our fiscal year began in October, we were eager to grow our programs and ministry outreach. We were thrilled to continue our fall, winter, and spring (usual/seasonal/annual) programs and partnerships. We were excited to welcome new friends from the Imani Milele choir for a two-night stay. Most encouraging, Summer 2020 was trending to be the strongest summer at Camp Fellowship since the formation of Camping Ministries of the Carolinas, Inc.

And then everything changed.

After such a great start to our year, we quickly realized we would need to pivot in response to the COVID-19 Pandemic. The Imani Milele choir needed a place to shelter indefinitely. Public Health recommendations and guidance from local, state and national authorities made it clear that we would need to innovate our Summer plans and our outreach to churches, campers, staff, guest groups, and our local community.

In our first pivot, we made arrangements and executed plans to provide emergency shelter for 37 members of the Imani Milele Choir, stranded in our area by the pandemic. Ultimately, we provided them shelter for 251 days! In the Summer, we welcomed six collegiate interns to our campus for an eight-week Intentional Christian Community experience. And through the creative and dedicated energies of our staff, we launched our Camp-In-A Box program to connect with campers and their families while also supporting local churches in their efforts to provide remote faith formation. In the Fall, we hosted a virtual adult retreat entitled "Let the Weary World Rejoice."

This has been a year unlike any other! It has been a challenging year in so many ways but ultimately a year filled with amazing ministry opportunities and equally amazing support to address each new challenge with faith and courage. We are immensely thankful for our partners, sponsors, and donors who helped us to not only weather this unusual year, but to sail faithfully through it, while providing Christian hospitality, mission and outreach in our community and beyond. We are thankful for the new friendships and partnerships forged during this year. And we look forward to welcoming both old friends and new, campers, guests, and groups back to Fellowship in the months ahead.

During the COVID crisis, the Imani Milele Choir and Camp Fellowship Staff formed a community of hope and perseverance. To honor their unique and unbreakable bond, the entire Imani Milele Choir and Camp Fellowship staff pressed their unique fingerprints in an overlapping pattern as a way to preserve this time in history. "Imani Milele" means "Always Believe", so together, they created a mantra of "Always Believe in Faith & Fellowship".
